1. Grinding Stone (Metate)
What did native people use the grinding stone for and how did they use it?

2. Survival on the Northern Plains
What foods did native people eat?

3. Nature’s General Store
Name four parts of the buffalo and how native people used them.

---

from the Native Cultures Room

1. Grinding Stone (Metate)
What did native people use the grinding stone for and how did they use it?

Cabbage Shredder
Look at the photo above and note the boy using the cabbage shredder. How is its use similar to the way that native peoples used the metate?

---

2. Survival on the Northern Plains
What foods did native people eat?

Early Travelers: Moving with Purpose
List 5 reasons that native people traveled.

---

3. Nature’s General Store
Name four parts of the buffalo and how native people used them.

Bison
Looking at the size of the bison, how many buffalo hides do you think it would take to cover the 8-foot diameter tipi in the Native Cultures Room? ________

How many hides would be needed to cover a 20-foot tipi? ________

---

Having fun? More clues on the flip side →
1. Captain Clark Arrives at Livingston

Where does Clark’s route (red dots) on the map not follow the interstate highway (purple line) between Bozeman and east of Livingston?

2. Wintering in Fur Country

Why did Jim Bridger and Joe Meek move their winter camp in this area?

3. Flying High: Livingston

How were sheep important to the early-day airport?

1. Early Travelers: Technology

Could the people have used horses to carry Yellowstone obsidian to Ohio? Why or why not?

2. Corps of Discovery: An Important Map

Why were the maps that Clark sketched in his journal important and who did they help?

3. Flying High: Livingston

How were sheep important to the early-day airport?

1. Civil War Veterans

What was the name of the man who built the railroad bed in Yankee Jim Canyon in 1883?

What were his other occupations?

Tracks to Wonderland

Name two characters who made it difficult for the railroad to reach Yellowstone.
from the Transportation Room
1. A Model Caboose
Why did Russell Green build the model? How many hours did he spend building it?

2. Rail Riders to the Park
Name three Presidents who rode the train when they traveled to visit Yellowstone National Park:

3. The Yellowstone Trail
Why did the trail disappear? And can you still experience parts of it in Park County today?

to the Front Yard
Caboose on the lawn
Imagine working as a brakeman and living in a caboose. List two advantages and two disadvantages to this work situation.

Stagecoach
How many passengers do you think could ride comfortably in a stagecoach? (Do not get into the stagecoach!) What are some inconveniences or dangers that they might have faced?

Front Yard Exhibits
Imagine working as a brakeman and living in a caboose. List two advantages and two disadvantages to this work situation.

Yellowstone Trail sign and rock
How many pounds does the Yellowstone Trail rock weigh? One ton = 2,000 lbs.

from the Lower Landing
1. Fire Exhibit
Read stories about firefighters and fires; share one here:

to the Back Yard
Find the panel that tells the story of the American LaFrance fire truck. How did it help Livingston fire fighters?